"In five years, we will be moving into new apartments, setting up the TV, pointing at it and saying to our roommates, "You'll be watching me on that someday." In ten years, we will be watching the news, pointing at the TV screen and saying to our husbands and wives, "You know, I went to school with him back in the day." In twenty years, you will be sitting in your bomb shelter, listening to the radio for news on whether the surface is safe from radioactivity or not and you will say to your family, shivering in the corner, "I knew that Bouzinov as a kid . . . always talking about nuclear war and testing on kittens."

"Bridge, checkers, chess, poker . . . lets play Global Thermonuclear War"

There really is no other day but today-so lets make the most of it!! Laura, I can't tell you how much I've enjoyed our friendship. We've been through way too much together. Newport, Old Orchard, and your Halloween parties are all good memories. No more Saturday nights with mama HatfieldOh yeah, sorry I park in half your parking spot every day, it can't be helped. Gtz with Hampe and all you art junkies (EW, KL, AM, LF, KJ, DANA), not to mention fun times with soccer and orchestra (ET, MS, RC). Good luck to all my other peeps in college-MH, KR, JR, ED, MM,-and everyone else; lets keep in touch. Luv you guyz!

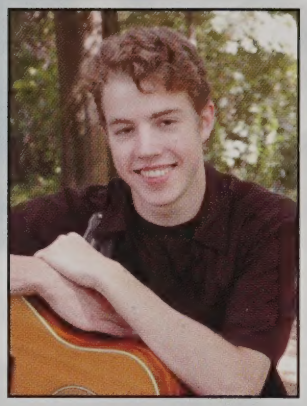
Our high school days have come to an end
But remember all the times we had with our friends
Bonfires, hardcore manhunt, and whiffleball games
To substitute teachers who couldnt remember our names
To boys, shopping, chick flicks, and tears
To hugs, smiles, laughter we'll hear for years
Tacos, shaving cream, painting is fun
Trampolines, the beach, we thought it had just begun
The bell, the parties, inside jokes
All I can say is: Ill miss you folks.
Thanks to everyone who made my years at Walpole High the best ever! Mom and Dad, I put you through so much and I love you for never giving up on me. Kate and Beth: my two best sisters ever! Everyone else, you were put in my life for a reason and thanks for being there for me. I love you all and good luck!



Geoffrey Herrmann

This is the snapshot of me that my kids will get to laugh at when they find it in the closet :). I can't imagine where I'll be by that time, but I know my hair will still have that Danny Zuko curl. I can only hope that the future will be as unbelievable as these past 4 years have been, and that I will still remember the faces of the people I have touched and been touched by.

It has been a terrific four years. To my friends Maura, Meghan, Robyn, Cierra - Love you all. We've had great times. Always remember Halloween parties at Robyn's, sleep overs at Lissa's. C & E field trips. "Any job big or small do it right or not at all." Hanging out. Emma - my "best buddy", you're the greatest. Mom, miss you forever. Love you Dad. Christine and Anne, thanks for everything.

The past four years have flown by in a blur, and it's hard to believe it's all over. I want to thank my friends for all of the laughter and the memories. You've made these years more enjoyable than you will ever know. But i want to thank you, above all, for putting up with me and making me smile when i needed it most.
I'll miss you guys.

High School is an experience like no other; you learn to live, you learn to love, you learn who you are, but not all that you will become. Dont think of what you could have done, or what you should have done. Embrace what you did, and have no regrets. If there is one thing Ive learned, it is the meaning of true friends: they are the hardest to find, but once found, they are impossible to lose.
To all my friends-thanks for making high school all that it was, we will always have these memories.
Mom, Dad, Grandma and Grandpa-thanks for everything, I love you.

Seven hundred days of school, 700 lunches, and 700 early mornings. Seven hundred days and I still feel like a freshman. Even though I can't remember the details of every day, I can remember spending time with my friends and family. Without them these seven hundred days would not be nearly as memorable. For the rest of my life I will remember founding the fat club, playing jenga, and developing elaborate plans that never came to fruition...among other fond memories. When people say high school flies by, I never really understood what they meant until now. I still remember my first day of freshman year and never thought that senior year would have come so quickly. I've had the best of times and the worst of times, but i never would've been able to get throu these 4 years of my life w/o my friends. I love u all so much and w/o you guys i dont even know where I'd be today. Thanx so much for all that you've done. I know the phrase is so corny, but you're really all my bffs. You know who you are.

Its been a wonderful four years. Mom, Dad, Hayley and Sunny, thank you so much for your love and constant support. You guys are the best family I could ever ask for. EW, KL, KO, DD, ED, TK, and the rest of my friends its been a privilege seeing you everyday and being a part of your lives. Thank you for being a part of my life. And to you, I have only this advice: take care of yourselves and of your tibbets, AND EVEN YOU CANT BLOW IT.

ny friends: "If ever there is tomorrow when e not together, there is something you must ys remember. You are braver than you ve, stronger than you seem, and smarter than think. But the most important thing is, even if e apart, I'll always be with you." - I love you nd will always cherish the jokes, late night
ne calls, cram sessions, shoulders of support,
memories we have made.
n, Dad, Caitlin, and Geegi, you have dealt my attitude and my craziness for the past 18
s, and although you say its entertaining,
ks for putting up with me.
or the class of 2007, as we move on to the chapter in our lives and away from the

Principal's Message

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and administration, I would like to offer best wishes to the Class of 2007. I certainly enjoyed my first year as Principal of Walpole High School and was particularly impressed with many of the outstanding achievements of the senior class. Both in the classroom and in extracurricular activities, the individual accomplishments of so many fine young men and women from the Class of 2007 has assuredly made us all proud. As you venture forward into your post-high school careers, you are leaving Walpole High School equipped with a solid education and all the social, civic, and intellectual tools that you will need to be successful in whichever path life takes you. Be proud that you graduated from Walpole High School, strive for excellence in all of your pursuits, and remain in touch through our Alumni Association. Congratulations on a job well done!

s year's Walpole Field Hockey team was no let down to the traditions that have come to be expected of them. a 10th State Title under their belt, the Porkers became the sole team of Massachusetts to ever achieve a 10th ictory. The team was powered by 25 athletes, 11 seniors, and 7 Bay State League All-Stars. Overall, the girls shed 23-0-1, avenging their only tie in the 1-0 State Championship victory against the Notre Dame Academy bels. The Porkers also took back their outright claim to the Bay State League title by going undefeated in the Bay State League

Finishing with a record of 8-8, the Walpole High golf team succeeded in overcoming several daunting obstacles this year to put together a solid season. Ending the season with a string of wins to qualify for sectionals, the Rebels left a lasting impression with their appearance at the sectional tournament and with an outstanding showing at the Bay State League All Star Tournament at Granite Links in Quincy. Senior captains Mike Kent and Mike Dedrick were joined by junior Chris Johnson as all stars. The performances on the course put out by some of the underclassmen were both critical to the team's success and promising for the future. Rebel golf made a clear statement this year that they are capable of overcoming setbacks to shoot solid scores and put together wins when they need to. The talent and dedication of this year's team was apparent and next year is looking to be no different.

Finishing the season with a record of seven wins, four losses, and seven ties, the Rebels were looking for a win in the Bay State Conference. Over the course of another hard fought season, the Rebels found success. Head coach Lee Delaney, Brian Larkin, and Jay Dubois led the varsity to second place in the Herget Division, only one point behind division champions Natick. Keeper Mark Gallivan had eleven shutouts on the season, one short of the school record. Many of the upper classmen, especially the seniors, took the younger players under their wings and helped them develop to a level where they could compete. The seniors stepped up and took a role as team leaders bringing the team together. Even though a loss against Canton kicked Walpole out of the tournament, the team made big progress this year.

YEETMAH!!!

This year's team held a record of 2-6. The record did not display the team unity and the tremendous respect each individual had for one another. From bus rides and meets to team sleepovers, this year's team became very close. As senior captains Sarah, Sam and Katie leave, the team will be losing great leaders whom we all love. All the goodtimes at practice dancing and not listening to Jessica, canning at the stadium and Baystates. These moments created lasting memories that we'll never forget. All of us hope for the best to our seniors and we wish them all the luck. We love you...YEETMAH!

Adam Scipione, Mike Lipsett, Dan Donovan

Team finishes at 3-3 for the season

Outstanding performances by Adam Scipione in the 1000, Mike Lipsett in the 600, Vinnie Lee in the 300, Mike Quintanilla and Jarrod Goula in the 600, Dan Donovan in the shot and Bobby Fitzgibbon in the high jump helped the team to have one of their most successful finishes in many years. With a very young squad returning for the 2007-2008 season, Coaches Cimeno, Giblin and Cochrane are expecting even better performances in the future.

Team finishes at 4-2!

The 2006-2007 season was one of best performances. Leaders on the track were Mary McAvoy in the 300, 50m hurdles and High & Long Jump; Liz Freiberger who is able to compete and do well in all events; Tacy Zysk in her second year on the track performed well in the mile; and Dana Griffin in the distance events . Junior Jess Papiriro and Senior Captain Mary McAvoy qualified for the state meet. A talented squad of underclassman will be returning next winter with the goal of going 6-0.

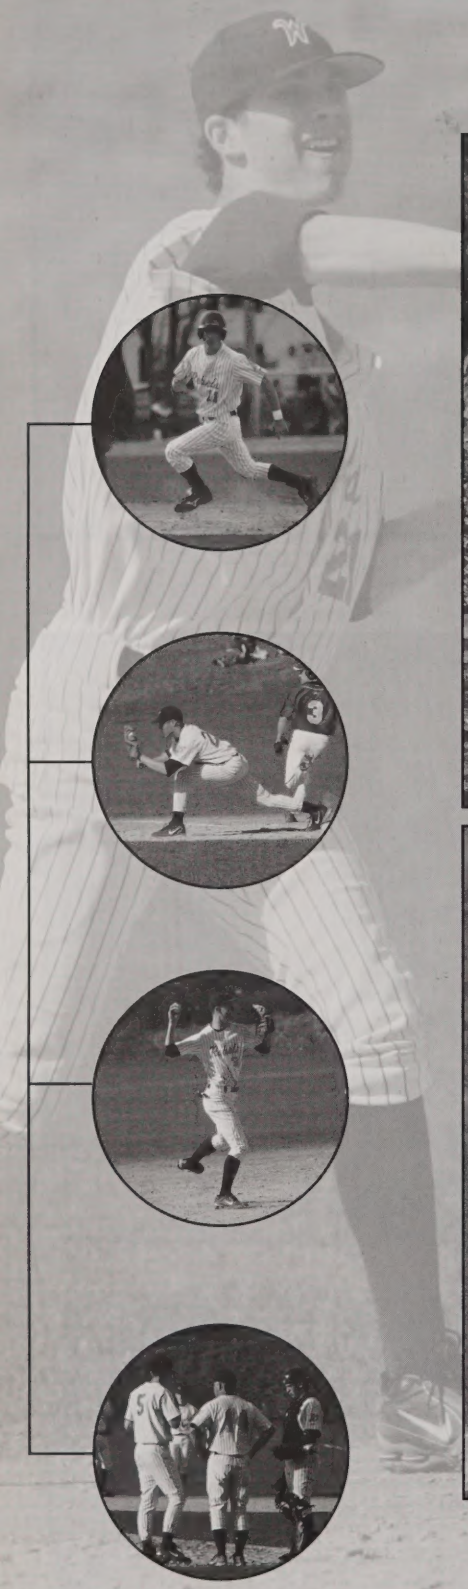
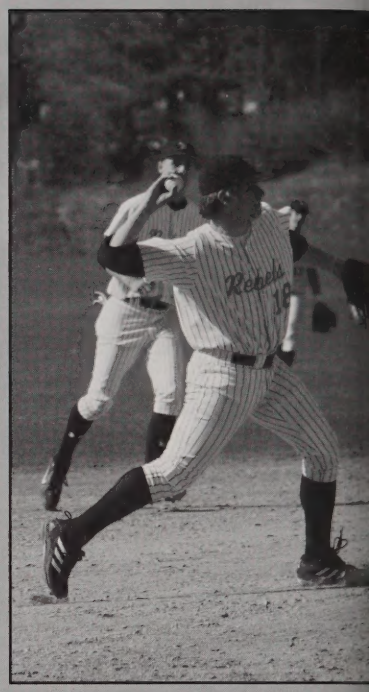
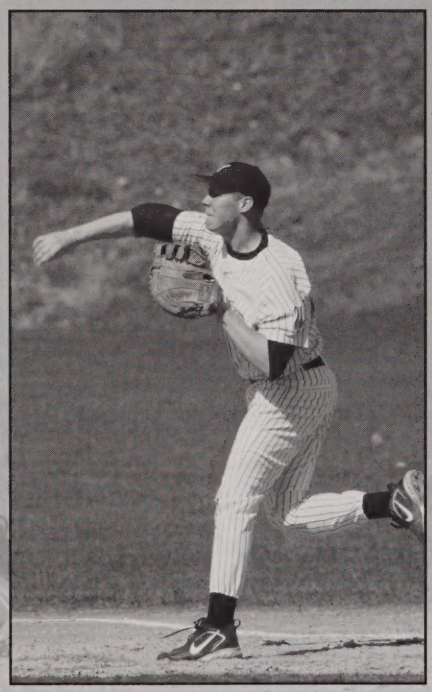
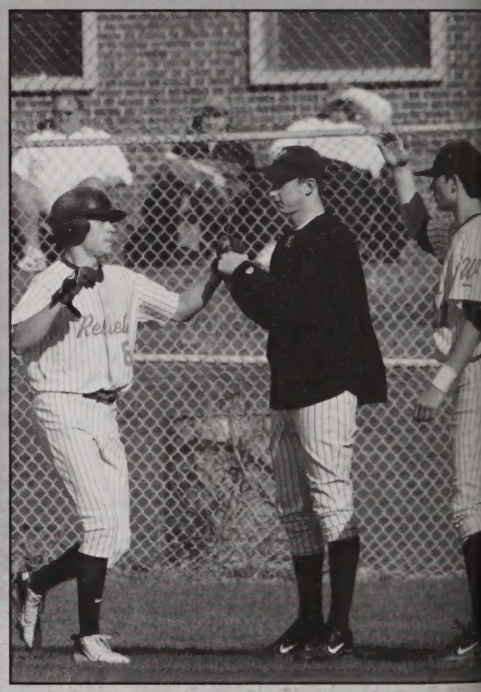
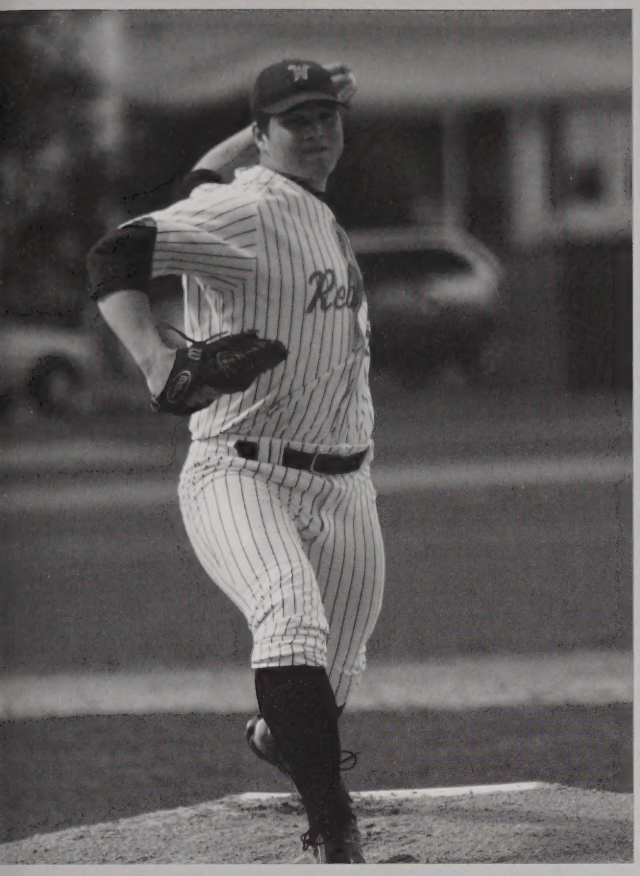
BASEBALL











The baseball team had another very successful season under Coach Tompkins. Led by captains Sean McDermott, P.J. Gouthro, and Pat Nicholson, the team won the Bay State League title and advanced all the way to the Eastern Mass Finals before being eliminated. At seasons end the Rebels compiled a record of 20-4, the second best record in school history. A large part of the teams great success came from the leadership provided by the team's twelve seniors.

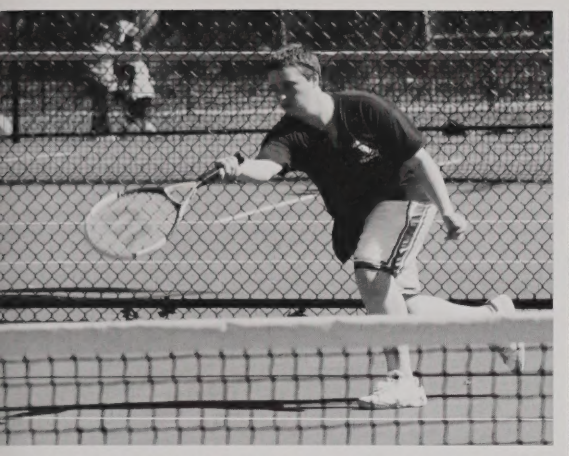
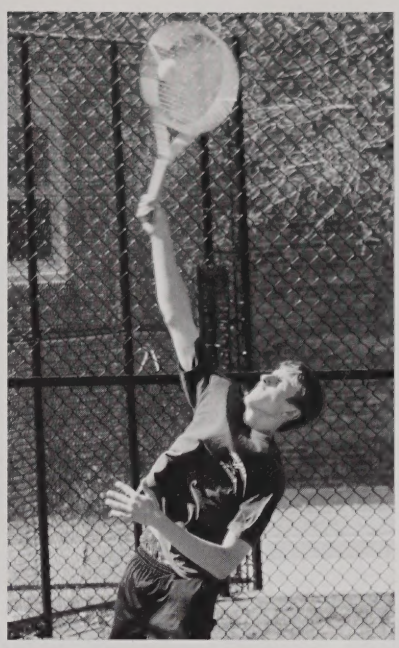
BOYS TENNIS





Boys Tennis provides excitement as they advanced to the state tournament

Led by team captains Mike Consiglio and Mike Kent the team continues to impress. Coach Gough calls the captains, who also hold the second doubles position, "some of our most reliable winners". In addition to the captains, there has been strong performances by first singles Senior player Max Bouzinov, seond singles Junior Dean Cohn, third singles Junior Brendan Kneeland and lastly first doubles Juniors Tim Bergen and Zach Hagopian. Senior Shane Garvin has been on call to fill in at a moments notice as he is a strog versitle player who can fill any role needed. Looking ahead to next season, especially after graduating such a strong group of seniors, much is expected from sopohomores Mike Flaherty and Adam Reigel.

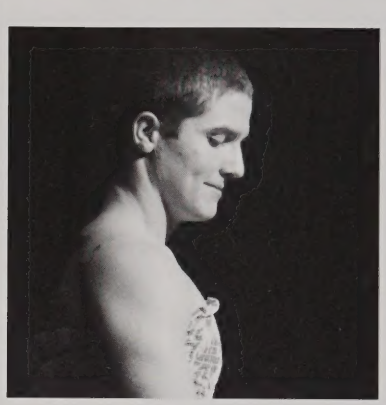
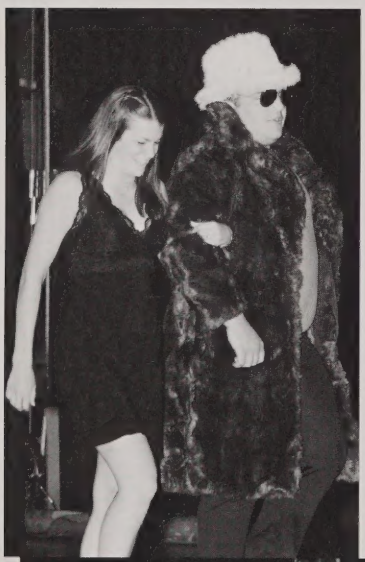
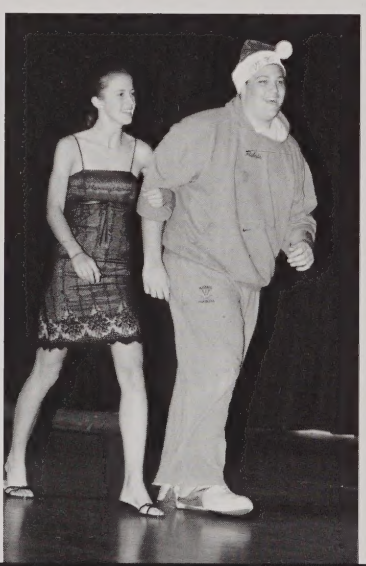
MR. WHS







It was an extremely close competition for the 2007 Mr. WHS title. The talent portion of the competition is where 2007 Mr. WHS winner Chris Ellis stole the show. His rendition of the Chris Farley Saturday Night Live Chippendales dance stole the show. Other notable performers were Russ Jones on the drums, Carl Plauts master sandwich and Jeff Walker performing Edwin McCains "I'll Be". Overall the night was filled with fun and laughs.

The Mr. WHS competition consists of a casual wear, talent, formal wear and Q & A's. Faculty judges determine the winner of the competition. This year the competitors were Chris Ellis, Russ Jones, Jeff Walker, Carl Plaut, Brian Glennon, Anthoney LaMorte, Nick Sterne & Chris O'Shea.

Parents seldom realize until their son is grown,
The many ways he's touched their hearts,
or how the time has flown...

It seems one day, the boy is gone-
A young man's in his place,
Facing life on his own terms,
with hope and dreams to chase...

And though you always trusted
he's be second best to none,
You never knew how proud you'd be to say, "There goes my Son".

Much Love Always & Forever,

lay our wishes for you pave your path as you head off in the direction of your dreams:

Clear eyes and an open heart better take in all the beauty that surrounds you. A soul that is light and a pirit that soars. A mind alive with private dreams and owerful ideas. The companionship of those that you ve most. The pleasure of your own company in those nes that you'd rather be alone. Golden memories and herished moments that take your breath away whose ister only increases with the passing of time. Giggles ith friends. Friendships that are true. Familiar hands to hold and hugs. A sense of belonging no matter where you are. Pleasant surprises both small and rand. The never-ending ability to find true joy in life's ittle gifts. As you grow older, the continued ability to focus on the growing rather than the old.

The peace that comes from believing in yourself. The joy to be found in doing for others. Realization of the love that so many feel for you.

Now just one more wish:
That all your dreams come true

May good fortune be with you
May your guiding light be strong Build a stairway to heaven
with a prince or a vagabond

And may you never love in vain
and in my heart you will remain
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young
Forever Young

And when you finally fly away
I'll be hoping that I served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime
No one can ever tell

But whatever road you choose
I'm right behind you, win or lose
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young ,Forever Young
Forever Young, Forever Young
For, Forever Young, Forever Young"
